Historical Sketch of the Parish

St. Peter's Parish was formed on April 7, 1822. This appears from the following paper: "The subscribers agree to form themselves into a congregation to be attached to the Protestant Episcopal Church, and to have the same represented at the next Convention of said Church, to be holden at Raleigh.

"Washington, N. Carolina,
"7th April, 1822.

" James Ellison, Eli Hoyt, Thos. A. deMille, John Jackson, A. P. Neale, Jarvix Buxton, James S. Blount, Wm. B. Swift."

The above-named persons constituted the Parish Vestry. Mr. James Ellison was the father of Mrs. Augusta Ellison and great grandfather to our townsmen, Messrs. Wm. and James Ellison. He was born and died here. Mr. Eli Hoyt, a native of Norwalk, Conn., came to this place in early life, and with his estimable Christian wife, whom he married here, was so identified with the parish from its very beginning that it may be truly said to have been their life's work. They organized a Sunday School in their own home even before the church was built, which they ever after punctually attended. Mr. Hoyt was Senior Warden of the Parish until the time of his death in 1864. He left many descendants in this town, who have always been foremost in the work of the church. Mr. Thomas A deMille, for many years a merchant here and an active member of the parish, afterwards removed to Brooklyn, N. Y. Mr. Jarvix Buxton, a native of this place, arose to prominence as a clergyman of the Church, and was for twenty years Rector of St. John's Church, Fayetteville. Mrs. Jas. S. Blount was stepfather to Mr. James H. McCluer, who died some years ago at the advanced age of ninety-two years. Among other names synonymous with the church work in those days are those of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Hoyt and Miss Patsey B. Blount.

The first church building was a plain wooden structure fronting on Main Street, and built on a plot of ground given for that purpose by Col. James Bonner, grandfather of the late James Bonner, of Bath, N. C. There was no recess chancel, but a low platform with the two lecturns with red cushions, one of which was used in the present church building until another lecturn was given. A gallery extended around three sides of the church and the organ was placed over the front door. The chandelier and font, sacred relics saved while the church was burning during the Civil War by a Confederate soldier, Mr. McCrae, have been placed in our new church. They were presented by Mr. Stephen Cambreleng and Hon. C. C. Cambreleng, of New York City, brothers of Mrs. Eli Hoyt, and natives of this place.

The first rector of our parish was the Rev. James Pier-son, who died in Washington D. C., and to whose memory a tablet was placed in the church, as was also one to the Rt. Rev. John Stark Ravenscraft, first Bishop of the Diocese. The next rector was the Rev. George Freeman, who was afterwards made bishop. His successor, the Rev. Wm. S. Hawks, was followed by Revs. B. Wiley, Robert F. Shaw, John Singletary, W. E. Snowden, W. E. White and Edwin Geer. The Rev. Mr. Geer was rector for eighteen years.

The old church building was burned in April, 1864, when its records were destroyed. In 1886, the congregation was reorganized and, after much hard work, the present building was erected and made ready for consecration to God's service, just ten years after the burning of the old church. And here we would pay a loving tribute to the Rev. E. Geer, Mr. Wm. E. deMille and Mr. J. F. Randolph—faithful servants of the church—to whose indomitable energy the reorganized parish owes much of its prosperity, and to the indefatigable efforts of that revered man of God, Rev. N. C. Hughes, D. D., who was in charge of the parish during the trying years that followed the war, the church is indebted for most efficient aid solicited by him from friends in northern cities. The new church building was consecrated December 18, 1875, by Rt. Rev. Thomas Atkinson, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese, and Rt. Rev. Theodore B. Lyman, Assistant Bishop, who preached the sermon. The next day, December 19, 1875, the Rev. Nathaniel Harding, who had been Minister-in-Charge since September, 1873, was advanced to the Priesthood by Bishop Atkinson, who preached the Ordination Sermon; and Rev. Mr. Harding continued the beloved rector of the parish until the day of his death in 1917.

"Just at sunset, on the 27th of June, the bell of old St. Peter's, tolling seventy strokes, announced to the people the passing to the eternal shore of the soul of their lovable and consecrated rector."

Forty-four years before he had come to them a young Deacon, just in orders, full of the fire and strength of youth, eager to serve his Lord and Master, and to lead and shepherd the flock committed to his care.

Through youth, through young manhood—on into the evening years he stayed—always their counsellor, guide and friend. Calls to other and larger fields tempted him not. He loved his people, and in no small measure did they return the love he gave.

At the age of seventeen he had entered the army of the Confederate States. His affection for the "bonnie blue flag" was strong and deep, yet, that conflict ended, he was no less true to the Stars and Stripes—his loyalty, unquestioned, enduring through the days.

In 1884 he was commissioned Chaplain of the First (now Second) Regiment of the North Carolina National Guard, and for more than a quarter of a century he held that sacred office, retiring at length the oldest commissioned officer, in point of service, in the Guard.

As first Secretary of the Diocese of East Carolina; as Deputy to General Convention for more than a score of years; as President of the Council, and President of the Standing Committee for term after term; as member of numberless committees of various kinds, Nathaniel Harding served the church in every capacity with a devotion and thoroughness rarely excelled.

Nathaniel Harding

The cause of public education early drew his interest, and the present splendid public school system of his county bears testimony to the years of service he gave as superintendent of public instruction.

While his range of usefulness seemed unbounded, and his activities many and varied, yet never were his own parish and people neglected. Says one of his comrades in arms: "To few men is given so continuous a service in one field; to none is given a larger part in the lives of his people. In their bright days his smile was sincere and spontaneous, and their joy was his. In their dark hours his sweet sympathy was like unto HIS Who tasted life's bitterest cup—his presence verily a gift of God."

Fitting, indeed, that he should be laid to rest on St. Peter's Day—patron Saint of the parish he had loved and served throughout his whole ministry. The body was borne to the church that morning by members of the vestry, there to lie in state until the hour of the funeral, the crucifiers and a detail from his former regiment standing guard.

The bishop and twenty-four clergymen from his own and other dioceses were in the chancel at the service, gathered to pay their last tribute of love. Six priests bore the remains from the church; the vestry carried them to the last resting place; the soldiers cast in the earth; three volleys were fired over the grave, and the bugler sounded "Taps."

"Soldier, rest! Thy warfare is o'er!"

Shortly after the death of Rev. Mr. Harding the Rev. M. Colgate Daughtrey, M. A., who for several months had been curate, became rector of the parish.

Since its organization our parish has had only five Senior Wardens, namely: Eli Hoyt, Wm. E. deMille, Edmund S. Hoyt, Wm. A. Blount and John G. Bragaw. Its organists have been Mrs. Jackson, wife of one of the first vestrymen; Mrs. Eli Hoyt, of blessed memory; Mrs. Thomas H. Blount, Miss Bettie Blount, Miss Bonner Blount, Mrs. Theodore Parker, who taught school at Chocowinity; Mrs. Edwin Geer and Miss E. M. B. Hoyt, who filled the position for thirty years. Among the more recent regular organists are: Miss Eliza Houghton, Miss Carrie Cobb, Miss Annie Townsend Bragaw, Miss Lillian Bonner and Mr. Edmund Hoyt Harding. Mr. Edmund Harding is still regular organist, assisted by Mrs. John Bonner, Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Justus Randolph.

In the work of the church our parish has, as a corporation and through its various organizations, taken and held its rank among the first in both the Dioceses of North and East Carolina. May she ever maintain her position and be among the foremost in all her efforts in the extension of the Master's Kingdom.

Memorials

"For all the saints, who from their labors rest,
Who Thee by faith before the world confessed,
Thy Name, O Jesu, be forever blest.—Alleluia."

To the Glory of God, and in Memory of His Saints, who have gone before, have been given to our church many objects of beauty.

Among the many gifts, are the chandelier and font, presented by Mr. Stephen Cambreleng and Hon C. C. Cambreleng to old St. Peter's, and saved when the church was burned during the Civil War. The crystal chandelier has been recently lighted most beautifully by Mrs. John Small in memory of her consecrated mother, Mrs. Mary Wharton.

Another object of interest is the large chancel window given by Mrs. Sallie Hill Carrow soon after the new church was opened for worship.

The memorials and other gifts are the altar, given by the congregation to Mr. Wm. deMille, Senior Warden, a faithful and earnest Churchman, who labored diligently that God's House might be properly builded, and whose funeral was the first held in the new church, even before he worshipped there.

The memorial windows are sacred to the memory of Rev. John Singletary, a former rector, and of Rt. Rev. John Stark Ravenscroft, first Bishop of North Carolina, and of Lottie Brown—these three being the first windows put in the church, the money having been raised by three Sunday School classes.
